

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE OMBUDSMAN FOR SHORT-TERM INSURANCE

1. PREAMBLE

- 1.1 The Ombudsman is appointed to serve the interests of the insuring public and all non-life Insurers registered under the Insurance Act, 2017 (Insurance Act), including Lloyds. The Ombudsman provides, free of charge, an accessible and informal dispute resolution process to Policyholders who have disputes with their Insurers where those disputes fall within the Ombudsman's jurisdiction.
- 1.2 The Ombudsman acts independently and objectively in resolving disputes and is not under instruction from anybody when exercising his or her authority. The Ombudsman resolves disputes using the criteria of the law or equity, or a combination of the law and equity. These Terms of Reference define the powers and duties of the Ombudsman.
- 1.3 The services rendered by the Ombudsman are not the same as those rendered by a professional legal adviser and are confined purely to resolution in terms of Clause 3.1 below or mediation or conciliation in an attempt to settle complaints.
- 1.4 Insurers shall disclose the availability of the office and contact details of the Ombudsman to:
 - 1.4.1 Policyholders at point of sale and in relevant periodic communications;
 - 1.4.2 Claimants when a claim is rejected;
 - 1.4.3 Complainants when a complaint is not resolved in favour of the Complainant; and

3. THE OMBUDSMAN’S POWERS AND DUTIES

- 3.1 The Ombudsman shall:
 - 3.1.1 act within these Terms of Reference;

- 3.3 On receipt of a complaint in the prescribed format, the Ombudsman will notify the Insurer of the complaint by providing the details of the complaint to the Insurer, and the Insurer shall then be obliged to give all relevant information and assistance required (including documentation requested by the Ombudsman) to enable the Ombudsman to assess the merits of the complaint.

- 3.4 During any period in which the Ombudsman is unable to exercise his/her duties owing to absence, incapacity, or death, or in a situation where a conflict of interests may arise, the Board may appoint a Deputy or Acting Ombudsman to act in place of the Ombudsman.
- 3.5 The Ombudsman shall have the overall responsibility for the conduct of the day-to-day administration and business of the Ombudsman's office. The Ombudsman may appoint an administrator to be responsible to him/her for day-to-day matters of administration of the Ombudsman's office.

- 3.10 The Ombudsman shall ensure compliance with the rules and reporting requirements of the Ombud Council appointed in terms of Chapter 14 of the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017.

4. THE JURISDICTION OF THE OMBUDSMAN

- 4.1 The Ombudsman shall only consider a complaint made to him/her if he/she is satisfied that:
 - 4.1.1 the complaint is not the subject of existing litigation;

4.1.2 the complaint is not the subject of an instruction to an attorney in contemplation of litigation against the relevant Insurer except where the attorney has only assisted the Complainant in bringing the application for assistance to the Ombudsman;

4.1.3 the complaint does not involve a monetary claim in excess of the amount as determined by the Board from time to time. *

 The limits are currently as follows namely, (a) R5 million for complaints relating to all types of cover, except for homeowners'/buildings cover; (b) R10 million for complaints arising from homeowners'/buildings cover. The same quantum limits apply to personal lines and commercial lines complaints.*

4.1.4 the complaint is made by a Complainant or a duly authorised representative of the Complainant to whom or for whom the insurance services in question were provided;

4.1.5 the complaint relates to any dispute in regard to a Policy or any claim or claims thereunder, or any dispute in regard to insurance premiums, or any dispute on the legal interpretation of the Policy wording relating to a particular complaint complying with the requirements of this Clause 4.1;

4.1.6 the complaint is being pursued reasonably by the Complainant and not in a frivolous, vexatious, offensive, threatening, or abusive manner, as the Ombudsman may decide in his/her sole discretion;

4.1.7 the complaint has not become prescribed in terms of the Prescription Act, 1969 or become time-barred in terms of the Policy, provided that in relation to any enforceable time-bar provision in the Policy;

4.1.7.1 the Ombudsman shall have the power to condone non-compliance therewith upon good cause shown, and

4.1.7.2 the provisions of any enactment which provides for the extension of any period contained in such time-bar provision shall be given effect to.

4.2 Should a complaint be lodged with the Ombudsman's office and thereafter the Complainant refers such dispute to an attorney for litigation against the Insurer, the Ombudsman will immediately withdraw from the matter.

- 4.3 With the written consent of an Insurer and at his/her discretion, the Ombudsman may investigate a complaint which exceeds his/her jurisdiction, and make a Ruling in relation thereto.
- 4.4 A Complainant may at any time terminate the Ombudsman's adjudication of the complaint and resort to litigation.

5. LIMITS ON THE JURISDICTION OF THE OMBUDSMAN

Subject to these Terms of Reference, the Ombudsman shall have the power to consider a complaint made to him/her and make a Ruling in regard thereto, except:

- 5.1 Where the Ombudsman determines that it is more appropriate that the complaint be dealt with by a court of law or through any other dispute resolution process; or
- 5.2 Where the matter is under consideration by the person appointed to adjudicate disputes in terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002.

6. TIME BARRING PROVISIONS

- 6.1 Any enforceable time-barring clauses in terms of a Policy shall not run against a Complainant and shall be interrupted during the period when the complaint is under consideration before the Ombudsman. In particular, the Insurer abandons all rights to rely in subsequent litigation on any time-barring provisions in the Policy applying to the commencement of litigation after the rejection of a claim, or after the event forming the subject of the claim, or after notification of the claim. In the event of the complaint being finalised in the office of the Ombudsman, the Complainant shall have 30 (thirty) days or the remaining period of the time-bar provision of the Policy, whichever is the longer, within which to institute proceedings against the Insurer, provided however, that the claim had not already become time-barred in terms of the Policy when the complaint was received by the Ombudsman and the Ombudsman has not condoned the late receipt of the complaint as is envisaged in Clause 4.1.7
- 6.2 For the purposes of Clause 6.1, the time during which a matter is "before the Ombudsman" shall (provided that the complaint is accepted for adjudication) commence on the day that it is lodged with the Ombudsman's office, and continue until such time as the Ombudsman makes a Ruling.

6.3 Save as may otherwise be provided in the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017 or in any other legislation relating to or governing the Ombudsman, the lodging of any complaint with the Ombudsman shall in no way affect the running of prescription in terms of the Prescription Act, 1969 in respect of such complaint.

7. RULINGS

7.1 When all the material facts are agreed or the facts have been established to the Ombudsman's satisfaction on a balance of probabilities, the Ombudsman may make a Ruling, having due regard to the incidence of the onus.

7.2 Where a material fact cannot be established or cannot be resolved on a balance of probabilities, the Ombudsman may not make a Ruling. In such cases the Ombudsman shall advise the parties that the complaint is not one on which he/she can adjudicate, and that alternative recourse may be sought in a court of law.

8. RIGHT OF APPEAL AGAINST RULINGS OF THE OMBUDSMAN

8.1 Any party affected by any Ruling on the part of the Ombudsman may appeal against the Ruling of the Ombudsman, either in part or in whole.

8.2 No appeal against the Ruling of the Ombudsman shall be considered by any Appeal Tribunal, unless the Ombudsman shall have granted the applicant leave to appeal against such Ruling.

8.3 The Ombudsman shall only grant leave to appeal to any appellant where he/she is of the opinion that:

8.3.1 There is a reasonable prospect that the appeal, either in whole or in part, if prosecuted, will succeed; and

8.3.2 The matter is one of complexity; or

8.3.3 The Ruling in question involves issues or considerations which are of substantial public or industry interest or importance, or it is in the interests of justice or public policy that the Ruling be considered by an Appeal Tribunal; or

8.3.4 The Ruling involves principles of law which may be considered to be uncertain or unsettled; or

- 8.3.5 The matter in dispute involves the jurisdiction of the Ombudsman to entertain the dispute; or
 - 8.3.6 The issues are of such a nature that the relief sought by the appellant will have a practical effect or result, and will not be of academic relevance only.
- 8.4 The power to grant leave to appeal as contemplated in this section shall not be limited by reason only of the value of the matter in dispute, or the amount claimed or awarded by the Ombudsman, or by reason only of the fact that the matter in dispute is incapable of being valued in money.
- 8.5 A Notice of Appeal against any Ruling of the Ombudsman shall be filed with the Ombudsman within a period of 30 (thirty) days of the handing down of any Ruling and shall state whether the appellant appeals against the whole or part of the Ruling of the Ombudsman, the findings of fact and ruling of law appealed against, and shall set out the grounds upon which the appeal is founded. The Notice of Appeal shall be accompanied by an Application for Leave to Appeal.
- 8.6 A Notice of Cross-Appeal shall be delivered within 15 (fifteen) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal, or within such other period of time as may, upon good cause shown, be permitted by the Ombudsman. The provisions of these Terms of Reference with regard to appeals shall equally apply to cross-appeals. A “cross-appeal” shall mean a process by which the respondent in an appeal, having been advised by the Ombudsman of receipt of a Notice of Appeal, wishes in turn to appeal against the Ruling of the Ombudsman.
- 8.7 Where an appeal has been noted, or an Application for Leave to Appeal has been made, the operation and execution of the Ruling of the Ombudsman shall be suspended, pending the decision of the Appeal Tribunal on the matter, unless the Ombudsman, on the application of a party and on good cause shown, otherwise directs.
- 8.8 Upon receipt of a Notice of Appeal the Ombudsman shall within a period of 5 (five) days thereafter notify every other party to the dispute that a Notice of Appeal has been received.
- 8.9 All documentation in connection with any appeal proceedings, including the Notice of Appeal and the Application for Leave to Appeal, shall be served upon the office of the Ombudsman by hand, or by way of registered post or by e-mail, save where the Ombudsman consented to any other method of service. Documentation served upon the Ombudsman shall be in A4 format and shall be clearly legible and capable of being photocopied. Wherever reasonably possible, original documents should be used in the Appeal.

Applications for Leave to Appeal

- 8.10 Any party who desires to appeal against any Ruling of the Ombudsman shall, within 30 (thirty) days of the handing down by the Ombudsman of any Ruling, serve upon the Ombudsman as provided for herein, a Notice of Appeal, with an Application for Leave to Appeal which shall set out the basis for the proposed appeal as contemplated in Clause 8.5 above, with reasons why Leave to Appeal against such Ruling should be granted by the Ombudsman. The granting of leave to appeal shall be a pre-requisite for the prosecution of any appeal.
- 8.11 Failing receipt by the Ombudsman of a Notice of Appeal within the time period referred to in Clause 8.5 above, the Ruling by the Ombudsman shall, subject to Clause 9 below, become final and binding upon the parties and shall be carried into effect without further delay.
- 8.12 Any late filing of a Notice of Appeal or an Application for Leave to Appeal shall be null and void, save where accompanied by an application for condonation for the late filing of the Notice of Appeal or the Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal. Any application for condonation must set out in full the reasons why condonation should be granted, the reasons for any non-compliance and why the matter is one worthy of consideration.
- 8.13 The Ombudsman, after considering any application for condonation, may grant or refuse such application in his/her discretion.
- 8.14 Where leave to appeal against a Ruling of the Ombudsman is refused by the Ombudsman, the unsuccessful party may, within 15 (fifteen) days of notification of such refusal, petition the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal, to review the decision of the Ombudsman not to grant leave for appeal. The same provision shall apply mutatis mutandis to the refusal of an application for condonation for the late filing of a Notice of Appeal or an Application for Leave to Appeal.
- 8.15 Any such petition shall be addressed to the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal via the Ombudsman, who shall convey such petition to the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal. The Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal shall within a reasonable period of time but in any event not later than a period of 15 (fifteen) days of the receipt of any such petition, either confirm or amend the decision of the Ombudsman referred to in Clause 8.14 above. The Ombudsman shall thereafter within a period of 5 (five) days, inform the parties accordingly.

Appeals

- 8.16 An appeal against the Ruling of the Ombudsman shall be heard by an Appeal Tribunal, who shall consider the matter as if the Tribunal were the Ombudsman, and shall consider procedural as well as substantive matters pertaining to the objection raised by such party to the Ruling of the Ombudsman.
- 8.17 The Appeal Tribunal may, where it considers it necessary or in the interests of justice, permit the leading of evidence or new evidence on any matter, even if the Ombudsman himself/herself did not hold a hearing, or receive evidence on any matter prior to making the Ruling.
- 8.18 Where the Appeal Tribunal decides to permit, or calls for the leading of evidence, or evidence is led on material that was not considered by the Ombudsman, the Tribunal may decide, in its sole discretion, to invite the Ombudsman to consider the matter in light of such evidence and to canvass the views of the Ombudsman on the matter. The Ombudsman should be invited to comment on the new material in the manner and on such terms as he/she may regard to be fair to both parties.
- 8.19 Save where the Appeal Tribunal permits or calls for the leading of evidence, no evidence shall be led and the matter shall be decided by the Appeal Tribunal on the basis of the record of appeal furnished to it by the Ombudsman, including the documentation filed by the parties in connection with the appeal.
- 8.20 The record of appeal shall, save where in the opinion of the Ombudsman, additional documentation is required, consist of the following:
- 8.20.1 The Complainant's Application for Assistance form and supporting documentation;
 - 8.20.2 The Insurer's response to the complaint;
 - 8.20.3 The Complainant's reply to the Insurer's response to the complaint;
 - 8.20.4 The Ombudsman's finding in relation to the complaint and any reasons furnished by the Ombudsman for any Ruling; and
 - 8.20.5 The submissions or representations made by the parties to the Appeal Tribunal in connection with the appeal.

- 8.21 The Ombudsman may, in his/her discretion, when submitting the documentation to the Appeal Tribunal in connection with any appeal, make representations to the Appeal Tribunal by way of explanation or elaboration of his/her Ruling, and shall be entitled in such representations to deal with such matters as policy, industry practice and the approach followed by him/her in regard to equity. In addition, the Ombudsman may furnish the Appeal Tribunal with such other information as he/she may consider to be of assistance or guidance to the Appeal Tribunal, save that the parties shall be afforded an opportunity to respond to any such additional material thus placed before the Appeal Tribunal.
- 8.22 Save as aforesaid, the Ombudsman shall not participate in the appeal process save where he/she is asked to do so by the Appeal Tribunal on such terms and in such manner as may be determined by the Tribunal.

Composition of the Appeal Tribunal

- 8.23 The Chairperson of the Board, in consultation with the Vice-Chairperson of the Board, shall appoint the members of the Appeal Tribunal from the persons nominated by the Ombudsman.
- 8.24 The Appeal Tribunal must consist of a Chairperson and at least two members, appointed for a minimum period of two years.
- 8.25 The Chairperson of the Board shall appoint the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal who must either be a retired Judge or a practising attorney or advocate, or a person who formerly practised as an attorney or advocate, with at least ten years' experience, including appropriate experience in insurance law.
- 8.26 The Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal is responsible for assigning matters for adjudication, taking into consideration the nature and complexity of the dispute or any special circumstance, to a panel of two or more members of the Appeal Tribunal.
- 8.27 The Chairperson of the panel must be the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal.
- 8.28 The persons nominated by the Ombudsman must be:
- 8.28.1 Practising attorneys or advocates or persons who formerly practised as an attorney or advocate, with at least ten years' experience, including appropriate experience in insurance law, and may include retired Judges; or

8.28.2 Persons with extensive experience in relation to the insurance industry and who by virtue of their knowledge, training and experience, are able to perform the functions of a member of the Appeal Tribunal; or

8.28.3 Academics with the particular knowledge of specific fields of the law, or persons with specific knowledge, skill or training whose expertise as an expert in any particular field may be appropriate.

8.29 The Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal may, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Board and the Ombudsman, appoint a person who is not a member of the Appeal Tribunal to serve on the panel, if in the opinion of the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal, such appointment is deemed desirable.

The Hearing of Appeals

8.30 The Ombudsman shall be in charge of all practical and administrative matters preceding and relating to the hearing of an appeal, and shall be responsible for the preparation of the record, the giving of notices and the making of arrangements for the hearing of an appeal, the recording of evidence, if any, and all such other matters incidental to the hearing or disposal of the appeal.

8.31 The Appeal Tribunal shall determine its own procedure both prior to and during the course of the hearing, including the hearing of oral evidence.

8.32 Appeals shall be heard at such place and time and in such manner as the Appeal Tribunal shall determine from time to time.

8.33 Not later than 10 (ten) days before the hearing of an appeal, the appellant shall deliver to the Ombudsman a concise statement of the main points which he/she intends to argue on appeal, as well as the list of legal authorities (if any) to be tendered in support of each point to be raised. Not later than 5 (five) days before the hearing of an appeal, the respondent shall deliver a similar statement.

8.34 The Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal may, after consultation with the Ombudsman, direct that a contemplated appeal be dealt with as an urgent matter and that the appeal be prosecuted at such time and in such manner as the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal deems appropriate.

8.35 The Appeal Tribunal shall approach the matter on appeal put forward as if it were the Ombudsman determining the complaint. The Appeal Tribunal shall take into account the balance of probabilities and its finding shall be based either on the law or equity, or a combination of the law and equity.

8.36 The Appeal Tribunal shall deliver its judgment on the matter in writing to the Ombudsman within 30 (thirty) days of the conclusion of the hearing. The Ombudsman shall in turn deliver a copy thereof to the parties within a period of 10 (ten) days.

Representation

8.37 Any party to any appeal shall have the right to be represented at the hearing but, wherever possible, the parties shall confine their submissions in the appeal to the written submissions contained in the statements of case envisaged in Clause 8.33 above, including, where appropriate, heads of argument.

8.38 Any party who employs a representative to represent it before the Appeal Tribunal shall be personally responsible for any fees and expenses associated with such representation.

The Effect of the Decision and Order of the Appeal Tribunal

8.39 Where a Complainant appeals against the Ruling of the Ombudsman, such person shall abide by the decision of the Appeal Tribunal and the order of the Appeal Tribunal shall be final and binding in relation to the proceedings before the office of the Ombudsman. The Complainant shall however be entitled to thereafter pursue the matter further in any court of law.

8.40 An unsuccessful appellant Insurer shall have no further right of recourse or action and shall be bound by the terms of the order of the Appeal Tribunal, save that nothing contained herein shall in any way affect the right of an Insurer to review any Ruling made by the Ombudsman or the Appeal Tribunal in a court of law.

Precedent

8.41 In recognition of the requirement that Rulings made by the Ombudsman shall not establish any precedent in the Ombudsman's office, the decisions of the Appeal Tribunal shall not be accorded any formal status nor as creating any binding precedents but may serve as guidelines for future cases. Such decisions may have persuasive power for the Ombudsman and any other Appeal Tribunal in which the same issue may arise so as to ensure consistency in the decisions of the office of the Ombudsman.

Cost to the Parties to Appeals

- 8.42 Where an appellant Insurer notes an appeal against a Ruling of the Ombudsman and is not, in the opinion of the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal, successful with such appeal, it shall defray the cost of such appeal incurred by the Ombudsman in connection with the appeal proceedings.
- 8.43 Where the Insurer is the appellant in any proceedings, save where the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal may direct otherwise, the costs to be paid by the Insurer in relation to any appeal proceedings may be determined by the Board, from time to time.
- 8.44 Where the Complainant is the appellant in any appeal proceedings, the Ombudsman may, in his/her discretion and taking into account inter alia the amount of the claim, the complexity of the issues and the Complainant's personal circumstances, call upon the Complainant to pay a deposit in an amount determined by the Ombudsman. In the event that the appeal fails, the deposit shall be forfeited to the office of the Ombudsman and shall constitute the only liability on the part of the Complainant for the costs of the appeal proceedings. If in the view of the Appeal Tribunal, the appeal is successful, the amount paid by the appellant shall be refunded to the appellant.
- 8.45 In no case shall the Appeal Tribunal award costs in favour of a successful party and in no case shall an unsuccessful party to an appeal be ordered by the Appeal Tribunal to pay costs to the other party, save where the Chairperson of the Appeal Tribunal considers that, having regard to the presence of exceptional circumstances, a punitive order as to costs against any party is appropriate.

9. POLICYHOLDER'S/COMPLAINANT'S RIGHTS

The Policyholder's/Complainant's rights to institute legal proceedings in any competent court of law against the Insurer shall not be affected by any of the provisions of these Terms of Reference provided that, if the Policyholder/Complainant institutes proceedings whilst the complaint is under investigation by the Ombudsman, the provisions of Clause 4.2 shall apply.

10. PRECEDENTS

Rulings shall not establish any precedent in the Ombudsman's office.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

11.1 The Ombudsman shall, as far as possible, maintain confidentiality unless the parties concerned expressly exempt him/her from that duty and the duty shall continue after the termination of his/ her services. The duty of confidentiality shall, however, not prevent the Ombudsman from:

11.1.1 Publishing particulars of Rulings made by him/her.

11.1.2 Reporting on particulars of Rulings or furnishing statistical information in connection with the workings of the office to the South African Insurance Association (SAIA), the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, the Ombud Council, the National Treasury, or any other body or organisation which may be entitled to receive such information from the Ombudsman in connection with his/her activities or which may have a legitimate interest in such information, having regard to its statutory mandate, role as an industry association or otherwise.

11.1.3 Publishing statistics and related information in the Annual Report concerning complaints received by the Ombudsman against member Insurers as approved by the Board from time to time.

11.1.4 Filing, either on behalf of the Ombudsman for Short-Term Insurance, or any Complainant from whom a complaint is received, a complaint with SAIA in connection with any Code of Conduct applicable to or adopted by that organisation and which may be applicable to any member Insurer.

11.2 The Insurer and the Complainant shall not be entitled to make use of any information which comes to their knowledge as a result of the intervention of the Ombudsman during the course of any investigation by him/her.

11.3 A complaint will be regarded as confidential as between the Complainant, the Insurer and the Ombudsman, and it is for the Ombudsman to decide what should be disclosed to the Insurer and/or the Complainant.

11.4 Documents brought into being as a result of any approach to the Ombudsman shall not be liable to disclosure or be the subject of a discovery order or subpoena in the event of any legal proceedings between the Complainant and the Insurer.

11.5 The Ombudsman or any member of his/her staff will not be liable to be subpoenaed to give evidence on the subject of a complaint in any proceedings.

12. COMPLAINTS NOT SETTLED IN DEFINED PERIOD

The Ombudsman shall report to the Board all complaints which have not been completed in one way or another within a time period determined by the Board. This time period shall initially be set at 6 (six) months calculated from the date that a complaint became an accepted complaint until its final resolution by the office.
